CEC Zaidi satisfied Goa's poll preparation

MAYABHUSHAN ■ PANAJI

Expressing satisfaction at the level of preparedness for the February 4 Goa Assembly elections, Chief Election Commissioner Nasim Zaidi on Sunday said that the poll malpractices received by his office ranged from abuse of money, misuse of Government schemes for attracting voters and potential misuse of casino for money laundering.

Zaidi, who was on a two-day tour, along with other members of the Commission, to Goa, also said that the country's tiniest State was ideal to test several of the poll-related innovations, especially those on a digital platform. Commission is by and large satisfied with election related activities and preparations of Goa.

"Parties expressed apprehension about abuse of money, distribution of gifts and on possible misuse of withdrawal of cash in Casinos. The parties further stated about likelihood of distribution of gifts in last week before the poll," the top poll official said.

"It was complained that ruling party is using beneficiary data base of Government schemes for threatening, canvassing and coaxing voters to vote in their favour," he further said.

Zaidi also said that various measures were being taken to tackle malpractice and added that law and enforcement agencies both local and central had been readied to crack down on them. "Expenditure monitoring machinery has been fully activated and preventive measures are being taken with co-ordinated efforts of Income
